“ Al was one of the nicest guys ever, and Al's Video in Dewar was a place that put the town on the map. I would go in there all the time in the late 90's to rent WWF Pay-Per-View's, and I last stopped by in 2000 to buy some Nintendo 64 games with some of my best friends before he closed shop...he was always a nice guy and would enjoy talking wrestling to a then 13/14 year old kid. He was as genuine as they came. Rest in Peace, Al.
