“ Haven't seen her in several years, often wondered where she was and how she was. I didn't know her last name to find her. I guess sadly it's to late now.

“ Andrea we miss you. I see your smile and hear your laugh. I know you are at peace and no longer in pain. I prayed for your healing but it was not to be. Your are now healed. You fought the fight and have won the race. Sweet sister in law you are forever in our hearts and in Deans heart. I send prayers to your children and family.
