“ Today, I remember and honor a truly incredible colleague and friend. Over the last two years, she taught me so much—not just about our work, but about life, resilience, and kindness. Her knowledge and willingness to share it made her an irreplaceable mentor, and I am endlessly grateful for everything Anita has contributed to our program, as well as our lives.

We shared so many laughs, lifting each other up even on the busiest days. Her joy and humor brightened every moment, turning ordinary workdays into cherished memories. I'll miss her greatly, but I'll carry those lessons and laughs with me always, honoring her through the way she impacted my life.
