“ Angie, Caroline, and DeeDee, I'm so sorry for the loss of your precious mom. Even before I was your teacher, I remember your mom bringing her 3 beautiful little daughters to church & Vacation Bible School at First United Methodist Church. It was obvious how much she loved each of you. I pray that our Lord will always remind you of the sweet times with your mother.

I worked with Barbara at Lake Drive for a couple years. She was such a awesome lady. She was always smiling and so sweet. She loved to cook and was always feeding us. She was very loved by the clients she took care of and the staff she worked with. Rest In Peace my friend! ❤️
