“ Could share tons of memories about Becky but one stands out today. I was babysitting her and our brother Tink. I knew Becky was afraid of the dark and I tied her up in the honey suckle and left her in the dark. I can close my eyes and see tears streaming down her little girl face. Almost immediately I felt terrible but didn't get her for a little bit. Always have been ashamed of myself and apologized many, many times. I hope she knows that it broke my heart. Love ya, Beck.

“ Becky was many things to many people but to me she was a HOOT!

Just this past year she would come by and visit me at work and my oh my the whole hearted laughter we shared.

Becky was one of a kind and had a drummer who beat to her step.

My favorite memory of her lives in her girls. They are big hearted and I love them so much.

I am sorry for your loss and will pray for your peace and comfort.

Love you both.-SunnyC

Becky would come into the barbershop and Sherman would cut her hair. She was a hoot for sure. Always a pleasure. Love to the girls, Charlie and Stacy. And the grandkids. So sorry for your loss....
