“ Oh how we love our Bobbie Jean. Sooo sorry we cannot attend. Please know of our sincere love and prayers for each of you. Memories flood our souls. Jackie Sue and I cheerleaders together at our beloved Dewar High School. Proms together. Mrs Webster cooking fried potatoes with onions and a huge pot of beans out at Henryetta Lake. My first camping experience. Bobbie Jean beautiful smile and laughter. Brothers always watching out for sisters. A beautiful happy family. And they included everyone. Made everyone feel loved and welcome. Was what a true and happy family really was. So many precious memories. Love you all soo much. God bless each one.

“ I met this lovely woman though my place of employment and found her to be so lovely, so delightful and delighted in everything around her. I had no idea of her struggles until recently and looking back at my few interactions with her, I am amazed at her grace and kindness and what a wonderful example of grace under pressure! Healed and happy before the Lord she surely is !!!!!
