“ Bryan was one of my mentors when I first started working for the city. Bryan was a hard worker but very quiet. By myself working beside him i keep my eye out for him as did he. One time we went on a rode call and myself and Bryan went on that road call but I wanted Bryan to drive and he did, the job got done and we were headed back to the shop but we were going stop and get lunch. Bryan offered to pay for lunch. He ordered and I ordered and when it came down to pay Bryan Crow handed me $5 to cover the food laughing the whole time, because I had to pay the difference. I you to always yell across the shop I LOVE YOU BRYAN CROW as he knew was was watching him all he would do is just laugh and give me a thumbs up.

Thought and prayers are with the Crow family
