“ Kendra, Kayla, Stephen, Johnna, BK...My heart is broken for all of you!
Butch was one of my best friends growing up. We were probably the two biggest smart-asses around! We had tons of fun, got into plenty of trouble, and got pissed off at each other more than once; but we also knew we could count on each other when it mattered!! He loved his siblings not only like a big brother should but almost like a parent, taking care of you guys while you were little. From visiting with him about 6-7 years ago I know he loved and was very proud of his girls!! And I'm sure you had every experience I had with him...fun, trouble, and getting pissed off!!
My hope for each of you is that you focus on a couple of your best memories of him, and gain peace from those positive thoughts...Much Love, Stan Swyden
