“ To The Rogers Family

*Chris was as much of our family as our own children. We were together almost 18 years. Anything that needed to be done we did together. He was a man of his word and that is hard to find these days. We loved him very much. He was a good Christian man and took care of more people than anyone ever knew. Chris told me he was going to see the Father and now he is with him. K. J. Hebrews 13:5

“ A wonderful friend and an enormous influence. I can honestly say that few people have had as meaningful an impact on my life as Chris. From going to the pawn shop as a little boy to negotiate pocket knives and bullwhips through visiting home to discuss ideas, the advice and lessons will always be a part of me. He preached the necessity of going against the grain and keeping your eyes open to new opportunities. There will never be another person quite like Goldielocks!

Gonna miss Chris Rogers...he was always straight up, funny and a good dude, Chris was good friends with a very good friend of mine, Jimmy Harbison. Like I told Chris one time, any friend of Jim and Jimmy Harbison, is a friend of mine. I consider Chris a friend. F'in Cancer...takin' all the good ones too early. :(God bless your soul, Chris.
