I started crying before the first photo. Donnie and Collene were always examples of what couples are suppose to look like. You always could see how much they loved each other.

I remember the year they got me the pitiful pearl doll. I made fun of the ugly doll, but Collene was smarter than me. I fell in love with that doll. My grandmother still has that doll to this day.

Collene was always a joy to be around. She never judged. She made you feel special. She just loved every one. She will so be missed by everyone.

Heaven gained another angel but my heart is so broken , I wish I could of been there to tell you I love you & hugged you one last time , I have a lot of great memories with you & Every summer as a kid I couldn't wait to go & see you and uncle Donnie. I'm going to miss your chocolate gravy and all your stories you'd tell me while you were cooking , and walking with you to feed all your cats in the barn . Your dearly missed aunt Collene .

“ It seems like yesterday I was just a child staying the night with my Aunt Collene. Wonderful memories. She always read me a bedtime story sharpening my reading skills while I intermittently interrupted to sharpened her speech skills. I absolutely loved helping my auntie with her speech. And she was always a good sport and tried repeatedly at times to correct her pronunciation. And when her and Grandma were ever in doubt about how to say something. Aunt Collene knew they could always count on me to tell them how it is. Being happy thinking of you Aunt Collene Love you always, Brigitte
