I remember the quiet, handsome, athletic, artistic young Danny in school at Dewar. Danny and Dos were my age, and I remember their whole family being good people. If my memory serve me right, Danny painted the Dewar Dragon on the wall in our new cafeteria. Rest In Peace and free of pain, Danny! 🥹❤️ “ Very saddened to learn this morning of the July passing of Danny Kaler. It was great back in the fall of 2018 to have Danny and members of his family back in Indianola for "The Art of Danny Kaler" exhibit.

Sending my love and condolences to all of your family. You sisters should be so proud of the care and love you gave Danny. He never had much to say but he always smiled and said he loved you all. He did have a little bit of "fear" when I would mention calling Barbara. (Just kidding.) When I would ask how he was his answer would be "OK." I can picture him in heaven painting pictures and truly being more than OK. May he RIP.
