“ Our sweet Dave, You came in our lives while we were still grieving for the loss of the Dad who raised us. You were always very kind and gentle to our Mom and all of us. You have a special spot in our hearts. You loved and spoiled our Momma rotten and did whatever you needed to do for her and her children and grandchildren. I have never seen anyone fight cancer as hard as you did. You never complained. You took in every moment and counted all of your blessings. RIP our precious angel. You earned your wings. You always called me your daughter.

“ My dad was and will always be my hero. They say daughters grow up to marry someone like their father. Thank you dad for setting the bar high. I love you.
