“ David Randolph Fox was an amazing man. He was everyone’s favorite person to be around. He could make anyone feel loved and included. Being the kind, generous man he was, he’d give someone his last penny if he thought it would help. As a grandfather to me he was the smartest person in the world. I was his shadow and now he is mine. I was his sweet little angle and grandpas girl. If he taught me anything it’s to be strong even when you feel weak, love when all you feel is hate, and to give even if you don’t have anything to give.
