“ I will never forget all the fun we had with Aunt Dot and Uncle Robert over the past years. They both were great examples to me and my children. There was never a time when any of us were bored on our visits. They made sure of it. Dot sent me some old pictures a few months ago and I will cherish those. She surely made a difference in my life and I am sure many others. Aunt Dot, so glad you're at peace. Say hello to my Martha for me. Gary Page

“ One of my first memories of Sis. Dot, I had went with Bro David & Sis Wanda Eller to visit and an ice storm hit OKC and we were stranded there with her for at least a day or so. We visited, played games, she told me stories of when my parents lived in the city. She was a mother to me from then on. Great example of faith, a great teacher!

“ Sis Dot taught me how to make sure the young girls in our church always felt loved and important. Growing up she hated tea parties, sleepovers and cooking classes that were beyond belief. Her joy always glowed and her smile made everyone feel her love. Thank God for lending us His angels for a while!
