“ I just today tried to find Doug and was shocked to learn of his death. Doug and I were room mates in Brindisi and also went to Biloxi Morse code school together. I was also in Vietnam, although I don't have much of a memory of being at the same station. The last time I actually saw Doug was in Tulsa when he worked for BC/BS. I think that was in the late 70's. He took my then wife and I water skiing. I'm not even sure he had a girlfriend at that time. I have been trying for several years to get in contact with him. I regret that I had not tried harder. My sincere condolences to the family.
