“ For years and years I always looked forward to the California visit from Uncle Earl and Aunt Jean. I couldn't wait to go to grandmas house to see them. I always had a blast when I got the opportunity to go to Vegas with them. From the first time I met this man 30 years ago when I married his nephew he gave me a big hug and a beautiful smile and I felt like I had been his niece my whole life. His kind and beautiful spirit always filled the room when he was in it. I loved that when he came every year he always had a new joke to tell. He was one of my favorite people. My heart goes out to my Aunt Jean, I know how much they were in love. After all the years of marriage they still looked like sweethearts together. My prayers will be daily for peace and comfort for Aunt Jean, Tuesday, D.E. and all the family. Uncle Earl...may you rest in peace and enjoy the beautiful sites of heaven!
Your niece, Cathy Keenan
