“ I remember Eddie very well. Growing up in Henryetta my mom and Stepdad had Ken's Auto & Wrecker. Plus Kenny was born and raised in Pharoah/Weleetka. I remember this particular night I was "dragging main" with my friends, and stopped into Ken's Shop and Eddie was visiting with Kenny. both of them being jokesters, Eddie acted like he was telling Kenny something I had been driving too fast or something along like that. I was so scared and made me cry. Then they both said oh no, sweetie don't cry. Because I thought I was in serious trouble. But Eddie was actually down there, telling my stepdad that he sees me quite often and that I'm a good driver had a good kid. RIP Eddie

“ A couple of memories of papa, when I would fix his plate He said he has to have his onions and always asked where mine were (he knew I didn't like them but always asked). One of the last times I saw him before moving to Alaska he wanted to take me to lunch. He told me he didn't care where I was in the world, he only cared about who was in my life and if I was a good person or not. That's what he was worried about. I wish I could have made it there to see you one last time, I miss you and love you papa!!
