“ My heartfelt condolences to all the family. I am so glad to learn that Ed made it into his nineties. I recall him as a great guy, our dairy inspector & not much of a quail hunter. Also, a fellow with a last name as complicated as mine. RIP.

“ I would like to dedicate this song in honor of my sweet precious friend Ed Eckfeldt who left this world today. Every time I listened to it I always thought of Ed and how much he loved his sweet Allene...she set with everyday seven days a week. He always got that little twinkle in his eye when he would see her. She always kissed him goodbye when she'd leave. To see the love and respect that those two had for each other was very unique. I love you Ed.. RIP...I'm sure the Good Lord has some cows that need some workin. And your good dog Crunch, he'll meet ya the gate.
