My sympathy to the Smith family at the loss of your loved one. The Smith family has long been an example of true christian love. I miss those in the family who are already in heaven. They were a treasure. My love to all.

“ Sorry to lose my friend and 1954 classmate. I remember 2 13 year old boys, 2 bicycles and a Tulsa World paper route. We had to get up at 4 am, ride our bikes to the bus station (located at 5th and Trudgeon) to pick up our papers, deliver them, and then off to school. Our hearts are with you during this difficult time. May God bless. Morris Palmer

“ As a child I grew up next door to the Smith family. Ernie was the bigger than life older brother. I was spellbound by his antics. Motorcycles, jalopies and Levi jeans. I remember his graduation and leaving for the service. How much joy there was when he came home. I remember the birth of his children and pray God bring them peace. Sue, I pray for you too. May God bless and keep you all. Ann, Flo and Bernie, you know your in my heart.

“ Growing up in Henryetta, OK in the years after WWII and the early '50s, my hero was my big cousin, Ernie. He was my role model, and a good one, too. We lived just across the street from each other, so I always hung around him as much as I could. I know I was a bother to a popular teenager, but he always paid attention to me. He helped me learn to play baseball, and I knew I was going to grow up just like him to play in the big leagues. It didn't matter that neither of us became major leaguers later on in life.

I still remember the trade Ernie and I made that worked to my advantage: my cheap transistor radio for his deluxe Schwinn knee-action 26-inch bicycle. I got years of fun from that bicycle, far more than he could have gotten from the radio. It was many years later that I realized that the “trade” was just an excuse for him to give the bike to me. When I think of that bike, I think of Ernie.

Live on in Heaven, my big cousin! You'll always be my hero!
