“ I have many fond memories of Everett. He was fun and ornery and loved to tease. He loved life and his family. Thanks for all the teasing and good memories.

“ We are so sorry for the earthly loss of Everett but rejoice that he is with his heavenly family now. He was such a good faithful Christian man. He never missed being at church and doing as much as he could to serve his Lord unless he was too sick to be there. Such a special husband, father, uncle, grandpa and friend to all. Our love and prayers. Earl and Virginia Freeman

“ We bought our first house in Wilson from Everett and Hilda 1975. Still have a couple of pieces of furniture bought in their antique shop a little later. Finally ended up with them at the Church of Christ. Love you so much Hilda. He was such a jokester and will surely be missed.

“ We enjoyed shopping at the antique furniture store that Everett and Hilda had on the corner where Henryetta Drug sits now. They kept very good merchandise and we still have pieces that we purchased from them. Very nice people. We send our sincere sympathy to the family.
