“ No one can prepare you for a loss; it comes like a swift wind. Losing someone we love is nothing easy, but knowing that we have been able to be a part of the life of that person, we can realize that we are blessed to have been able to share in her life before she went to rest in eternal salvation. However, take comfort in knowing that she is now resting in the arms of our Lord and in knowing that God rest her soul in peace and the angels to always be there with you and watch over you! She will be truly missed and I will include her in my daily prayers. May my prayers ease the pain of this loss. After the tears have dried and the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with our loved Fern who has passed, this is what keeps her alive in our hearts and in our minds, and she will continue to live on, through us. She will be cherished in our memories forever. Once she told me: "Listen to the wind and you'll hear my voice" I'll do! . May our Lord bless and comfort you, your family and all best friends during this time of grief. My deepest, heartfelt condolences to you.

“Lou sure looks like mama in that photo. Makes me think of the time we were going from Corcoran to Fresno to see mom. Louise in her car, LeRoy and I in ours. She was out from Texas for a visit. All of sudden she whips around us, laughing like crazy- we're on the 99 and the race was on. LeRoy spots a highway patrol car in the rear - mirror and slows down. HWP passes us and is racing down the freeway. About 5 minutes later we pass Louise who is sitting on the edge of the road, drivers license in hand as the officer stands beside her car his red lights flashing. Needless to say we didn't finish the race but all had a good laugh about it. Gosh I miss my big sister. Love her so much

“ My mom was a kind loving person whom lived for caring for others, She loved her family and her friends and was the best Mema ever. Her favorite saying was

I love you a bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck and a barrel and a heap, I dream in my sleep of you,,,,,,

This is one saying that will live on in her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Fly High Our Beautiful Angel We love you and will join you when our time comes.
