“ Flo, was my second momma as I was growing up and I really loved her. She made me clothes and took me everywhere with them and never showed she minded doing it. She was such a special person. When my mom passed she was there. I think of my second momma offend and now will probably more than ever. I love my family though years and miles and life has taken us apart you are still family and a feel your sorrow. May the Lord hold you in His arms and give you comfort in the mist or your loss. Love ya, Beth Ann

So sorry to hear of the passing of Flo. I remember her as such a sweet caring person. She was an angel who lovingly took care of the little handicapped boy. I always admired her for that. May she rest in peace in her heavenly abode. God bless and take care of her family during their mourning. Becky Osmond Hold
