Frances was the Nursery Director at the First Baptist Church for Forty Five years. It was a record she was very proud of. She loved children and they loved her. Parents of the children she kept loved her dearly also. Frances had numerous dear friends. Everyone who knew her loved her. She had such a likable personality and a beautiful smile. She had numerous jobs outside the home but her first priority was her family. Frances was a mother who made many sacrifices for her family. Her mother died when she was a baby and she grew up without even knowing a mothers love. In spite of that she knew how to be a mother. She was a wonderful, precious mother. She was the greatest! Frances was a wonderful wife to her husband Silas whom she dearly loved and a wonderful homemaker. She was a great cook and loved to cook and bake. Everything was homemade with special touches and recipes. She made the very best homemade rolls and waffle cookies. She also enjoyed her hobbies. She loved to quilt and made many beautiful quilts. People would comment on her beautiful stitching. She belonged to two quilting clubs. She also belonged to the sewing club called the thimble club and was made up of a group of close knit friends. She was the last remaining member of that club. She lived a very active life. She was always thinking of others ready to lend a helping hand or make her home made rolls and take to a friend. She had a beautiful smile and always a positive preserving attitude. “ What a lady!!! Always wanted to look her very best and have a neat appearance for as long as she was able--always wanted to do something to Bless someone else each day. Many many days she would come to my office (at Fountain View) in her wheelchair and have miniature candy bars or some other little treat in a baggy and say "Betty take these back there and feed them to your brother." Every few days she would ask me about how my daughter Cindy and all her animals were doing and I would tell her stories about them. I know all of her family will miss her terribly and I will also. I loved her.
