Such a Beautiful Tribute to Gary Davis. Lori Ann, I only remember meeting & seeing your Dad a couple of times when we went to your Grandma's house, but he was always nice to me. Tonya was so right on when she said that Joshua takes after him both musically & in looks when your Dad was younger, WOW! I am so sorry for your family's loss, but I am also rejoicing that he's no longer in pain & suffering ❤️ I love you my Dear Friend & I am here when you need me. Sending my love & prayers for comfort and peace

What a great tribute. I remember Gary in younger years. He was always quite if you can believe that. But when you would ask him to play his guitar he became a different person. Always told him to remember me when he became famous.

“ Uncle Gary never missed a beat with his humor even in his times of pain and suffering, he was always concerned for others when they were visiting or caring for him.

Gary and my brother Paul Gilley Jr were friends in grade school. Gary used to come to our house early before school. We lived near the VFW and the Armory. Paul passed away on June 3, 2015 and is buried in West Lawn Cemetery. Also, my Mother-in-law, Gladys Keith Steele was a cousin to Gary's Dad Loyd Davis. Joyce Gilley Steele, Beggs, OK RIP Gary Rest in peace Gary, I always liked to hear you pick and sing, but didn't see you much after Daddy passed away (Shelvy Davis). Keep on picking and singing.

“ Gary, I always thought a lot of you. You always kept everybody laughing, especially my Dad. I will never forget you and your guitar. You will be greatly missed. Rest in Peace!!

Rita Davis-Casey - June 18, 2016 at 09:35 PM

Thank you Rita!..The absolute best memories I have of Daddy are of me a little bitty thing, sitting at my daddy's feet while he played that guitar & sang! It was way past my bedtime, but there was no keeping me in my bed, I had to be right there , because I just knew my daddy was singing every song just for me! I would give anything to be able to crawl up in his lap & just be his little girl again!

Lisa Ysasi - June 19, 2016 at 11:29 AM

“ You were my first love & my hero always! You were the best & sweetest Daddy any girl could ever want!... You loved me unconditionally & always, always believed in me!...And I will be forever missing a piece of my soul without you! I love you & I loved that I was always your little girl! R in Peace Daddy!
