Uncle Gary was the sweetest man on this earth. He always listened to anything I had to say or a problem I had. He was always in my corner. He told me many times that I was a strong person and to not take anything off negative people. He told me I had a special place in his heart. Im gonna miss our talks especially family gossip. Lol He was a strong minded persin with a gentle heart. I love you Uncle Gary. I will see you again one day.

Gary was and always will be a great man who I will always remember and and love. He and Nancy, along with their family were loving friends to our family with much love and mutual respect, which will not ever be forgotten. Much sadness today to learn of his passing. Prayers for all with Love and Peace of Heart. Maggie Havener Plyler.

“ Mr. Gary was one of the most larger than life itself, like John Wayne and my own father. I didn't know how to take him when I first met him and I was just a snotty nose kid, but I knew that he was a real man and right off the bat that I needed to listen when he spoke, not just out of respect but I would be wise to cause he wasn't talking to hear himself and he sure didn't want to repeat himself and he wasn't going to tell you something that was going to guide you the wrong way. I remember everything he and I ever talked about he was just like a second dad and just as hard and rough around the edges some would say like my own dad, but he was a good man and seen and dealt with a lot of hard times and loss in his time but he always kept his head up and "never let them see you sweat" as us younger generation would call it, even though I know he was only human and was there thankfully and gladly let him lean on my shoulders and lend a ear to him at least once in a time of need. I love you Mr Gary and I wish I could see you and "Ole Pete" and Rustler and "Ole Satan", trucking it up again like I know y'all are....
