“ I grew up with Gaston , he was like a brother to me. Our families traveled together in the fifties. He and my brother tried to peak in the window in jan.1944 to see my mother give birth to my little brother Gene. I had a short visit with him a while back. I am so grateful that we told each other we love one another. RIP my sweet friend❤️❤️

“ Valerie, I first met your dad when I was your high school teacher. I always thought he was a nice man. My parents have known him for many years and neither one ever had a bad thing to say about him. May he Rest In Peace now. We pray that you are left with loving memories.
