“ I guess I've known Glenda my entire life. Her parents and my parents were lifelong friends. Glenda was very nice to me and my dad loved teasing her. I remember her playing the piano. When her kids were young I babysat them some when we all lived in Sapulpa. Thank you for always being kind to me. Prayers to Mark and Regina and all the family.

Thank you Patty !! She often spoke of Clay teasing her. Almost every Christmas she would retell the story of the time your Dad, Clay, put a large Walnut in a small box and wrapped it up real nice and pretty and gave it to her as a Christmas gift. She said when she opened it she found the Walnut and also inside the box was a little handwritten note that said, "From One Nut to Another. Merry Christmas ." That may have been a friendly joke, but she never forgot it and obviously it meant the world to her. Your dad was always so great like that.
