“ I would like to take this time to celebrate our Uncle Hank’s life and his homecoming! You are free of pain and though you’ll be missed, your soul and memory live on! Say hi to my Dad, Grandpa, & Grandma! You lived a long and fulfilling life here on earth- with many to carry on your memories. A little memory I carry- is over 35 years ago- sitting on Grandma’s porch, Uncle Hank came up the driveway (without Ann) and I would yell “it’s HANKNANN, it’s HANKNANN”! The silly part is, I always thought that was his name because he and Ann were inseparable!! So when Ann was with him, I’d say “hi Hanknann and Ann”!

Well, Uncle Hanknann.. Until we all meet again- you are not gone, you are just away..

“ I had not seen Hank and Anna in a long time.
We used to attend the same church and our kids grew up in church and school together. They raised some wonderful children and were an example of a long and happy marriage. May God comfort you in this difficult time.

“ Although I grew up several states away and didn't get to see Uncle Hank very often, I will always remember his ready laugh and kind smile. He was a kind soul and a good man. He was the embodiment of God's light and love in this ever darkening world and he will be sorely missed. Rest now, Uncle Hank, in the arms of our Father. We will see you soon.

Hank will be greatly missed here on earth. We loved him as a friend and extended family member. His laugh was infectious and he made everyone smile with his great stories. I know his family will feel his absence deeply and we are praying for them, that the Lord will give them strength to get through this time of heartache.
