“ Today, the world is a little dimmer, a little less gracious, a little less kind. Heaven on the other hand... is brighter than it has ever been and is rejoicing right now! I can see it in my minds' eye as she entered the great gates of heaven being welcomed and reunited with so many loved ones, who have been patiently waiting for her. I pray her heart is overflowing as she sees so many the Lord has gathered from every corner of heaven to celebrate her arrival.

She was from "Pioneer Stock" through and through. She was strong when she had to be and rose to each challenge life threw her way with grace and dignity. Above all, she had a beautiful soul and a kind and loving heart. From the multitude of foster babies she took in, and gave a new and loving start to her generosity and strong faith. She was a wonderful example to me and later my girls to emulate.

So many fond memories and thoughts of her play across my mind....her sitting at her organ and singing "Wind Beneath My Wings" to "Home on the Range" to my girls, her home made lasagna, pies, cookies, and chicken. She could dance circles around Julia Child! Her bowling with Uncle Charlie and his "Charlie Tuna" bowling shirts, camping with her in Arkansas, her beautiful tea cup collection, her "flower bed" as my daughter called it and her beautiful hand work that created it.

Our time here is limited, but she experienced much, touched so very many, and truly lived life to its fullest. She will be truly missed, but I know I am a better person for having known her and will carry a part of her with me forever.

Rest in peace Aunt Marie... You will always be loved!

“ I have had the privilege of serving as Marie's pastor for the last year's. She in one of sweetest souls that I have met. She loved and served God as intensely as anyone. She was a loving family member and friend to so many. I will never see a tea cup or poem without thinking of Marie. She leaves a wonderful legacy for anyone who knew her. I love and will miss her greatly. My prayers for her family. Terry Cossey
