“ Ivia and I spent many forlorn nights living in the same wing of that awful nursing home we both had to go to after our respective strokes. Even though Ivia's most recent stroke had taken her ability to speak, she could still communicate with her hands and facial gestures, and I could tell what a sweet and loving person she was before those insidious strokes took it all.

I will always remember you Ivia. You helped hold me up in that terrible place, which was without a doubt the lowest point of my entire life, and I will never forget that. I know we will meet again on the other side. God bless you. and rest in peace dear.
