“ Jim was mine and my mom's neighbor along with his wife and daughter for a long time. He was a caring and considerate man, always ready to help anyone. They would come to mom's and sit for hours, telling stories of their travels. He loved to talk about anything electrical and how it worked, he was very intelligent. And it was obvious that he and Margarett were devoted to each other. He was well loved and is already greatly missed.
