“ Janice and I were friends for over 45 years. We went to school together, our kids grew up together and we worked together for many years. Even though we didn't see each other often since we both retired, I will truly miss my friend, but will see her again some day.

“ Janice and I first met when we were young mothers involved in a group called Young Homemakers of Oklahoma. We made so many good memories during those years, created friendships that have lasted for decades, ate way too many meals together, raised a ton of money for various charities, served our community in a multitude of ways, yet always kept our faith and our families at the heart of all we did. Even when we didn't see one another for years it was like yesterday each time we ran into one another. Janice will be sorely missed but I know she's with the Lord and that's a wonderful place to be.

“ What a courageous battle she fought. We will be sad when we look at her empty pew but know in our hearts one of Gods precious children has gone home. Morris and I loved her as one of our own. Our holiday dinners won't be the same without her smiling face. One of her other mothers in Christ. Lola Palmer

“ I am just in shock. Janice was such a bright light in this crazy world. I can still hear that infectious laugh and see that shining bright smile. Janice was a friend for years and she will be missed by so many, especially her family. She was such a devoted mom and grandma and made many memories with them that they can carry with them through their lives. Fly high sweet friend!
