He was my friend & my brother-in-law.... I'll miss him when we joked around with each other about anything & everything. I'll miss him most of all as a really good friend. I love you brother is something he always told me every time we spoke to each other <3 He always called me to ask me something about car repairs he would be having trouble with. He never backed down from a challenge from car repair to anything thing with repairing. He once told me he was a self made man & that he was his own kind not what others wanted him to be.... I believed him because he proved it to me as to others. Love you brother, Tommy Joe
