love to all. Jerry was a fine man and married a wonderful woman who stood by him through thick and thin. Too bad that the evil thing entered his body and took him way too soon. He prepared a wonderful meal for my family when my mom passed last September . He will be sorely missed by all who knew him!

“ My cousin, Jerry, was a very special person. Growing up our family was close. We had fun times growing up as kids and as we became adults. We lived just down the road from them and grew up together. Wonderful memories. Jerry, is now sitting at the feet of Jesus. Jerry, will always be remembered as a wonderful man, husband, father and grandfather. May The Good Lord Bless and Keep his precious family always.
