“ I have so many memories of Jerry & Teresa when Shelia & I were in high school and together all the time. Teresa all I can tell you is to be thankful for all the years & memories you shared together. Everyday without your spouse is very difficult. Shelia, Angelia & Brian all I can tell you is that everyday without your dad will be hard but you will make it through with God and family around you. I love you all & pray that God will give you strength and comfort this week and in the most difficult days ahead.
