“ Jesse, Sharon and Clifford, we grew up together. Jesse was quite the jokester. He played so many jokes on us. I was glad when he brought Mel into the family. We became close and raised our boys together. Love you Mel, praying for ya’all.

“ My Uncle was definitely one of a kind! Oh so many memories made with him, so many lessons learned with him, so many laughs had with him. I don't think I will ever forget the sound of his infectious laughter or the way he lit up when he was around kids or pulling off one of his infamous pranks. Many moments burned into my memories of sitting and watching/listening to him, my Dad, Uncle Willie, and Mike tell the back in the day tall tales.

“ I remember Jesse living with me in are garage my parents accepted him like another son and I had three other brothers. But is was one of my best buddies I remember taking him to church where he had met Melodie. Loved cruzing with him and Eddie Zimmerman in his 58 Chevy. His Nic name was JB aka Jellybelly. Love and will miss him for sure.
