“ I'll never forget how kind Jim and Sara were when at 18 years old I showed up In Mc Cormick with my 2 year old son. I had married Jims nephew, Melvin and moved to SC right out of high school. It was the first time I had been away from my family. I got a job and needed someone to watch my son. The only ones I trusted were Jim and Sara. They were the best and I felt so lucky to have known them.

“ Bill, I'm so sorry for the loss of your Dad. I'll never forget when your family moved here when you were in Jr. High. All of you were so easy to get to know and to get close to....it was as though you had been born and raised here....I have many good memories. God bless you and your family.

“ Jim was a part of our life for a very long time. I never met another man like him, he was funny, ornery, hard headed, smart, and would give you the shirt off of his back. I know he and Sarah are now together again and all is well. RIP dear friend. Mark and Tammie
