John was one of the nicest men of my CWA Family. He was a true gentleman with a wicked-smart sense of humor. He will be missed. I'm happy to see that John was loved by such a beautiful family. You will remain in my prayers.

“ *Just now have learned of Johnny's passing. Haven't seen any of the Marshall kids in so long; I guess it was at Aunt T's funeral. We're all getting older now and soon it will be our children's turn to be left. So glad I came across this article & know that my heart is sad at your loss. “ John was born a true gentleman, even on the day of our birth, he allowed me to come out first. He and I were always together at school and spent most of our childhood together until I left at graduation to go to college in Oklahoma City and left later and went to New Mexico to finish his schooling and work for our uncle. After that we keep in touch by phone. He was a gentle, kind and compassionate brother and I will always miss him, especially on our birthday, he always called me or I called him.

“ I remember the day I met John. My Mom and Dad picked him up at the AirForce base in California. I was with them but was a young teen. I thought he was a movie star. He was so handsome. I have loved John from that moment on. We lived in California and he went home to Oklahoma but that time in California was when we established a bond that endured through the years. My Uncle John and Uncle Joe have always been my heros. I am extremely close to their kids and grandkids and feel so fortunate to have had a relationship with them all. Our family is large but has always been Marshall Strong. We love one another. RIP Johnny, hug Judy for me. I love you.

“ I have known John for a number of years because of his work for CWA. More recently, he and I worked together closely during his time in San Antonio. I was truly blessed to have known John and to call him a friend. He was a good friend to all who knew him, worked tirelessly on behalf of CWA members, had a great love for his family, his country and his Union, in that order. John will be missed by me and all of his CWA family. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ Love this family & love this man dearly. He helped shape the person I am today. He & I often joked that I was his first daughter. He was passionate about his love for his family and everything they did. He had a strong work ethic. I'll never forget the day he actually braided my hair for me (can't recall the year, I was little). Such a strong man that was gentle enough to sit & braid a little girl's hair. I also remember my trips to Houston before I was brave enough to drive in that traffic... he would drive an hour & a half one way to pick me up so I could visit with the family. We talked about everything. He taught me about unions and showed how to have a passion for the things you believed in. I'm thankful to my Marshall "siblings" that shared their Mom & Dad with me... I started out as the annoying neighbor and then the bossy babysitter to being adopted into the family probably because I just wouldn't go away. I'm comforted by the fact that John & Judy are now together again. Probably sitting at the kitchen table drinking coffee & talking about how proud they are of all their babies.

I have so many good memories when I think of my brother, John . He showed so much kindness to me when teaching me to drive. He never raised his voice but spoke to me in a kind way when telling me how to work the brake and gas pedal. He touched the hearts of so many with his kindness and compassion. John, brought joy and laughter when you were around him always. Our family loved him dearly and we will miss him greatly. RIP my dear brother. We will see you later when we all are reunited in Heaven
