“ John came over to study with me when we were like 12 and he brought me a necklace, he said men should bring a gift lol. Another time when I was a senior, my date was really late. John, not even knowing the guy pretty much told him off when he finally showed, without any hesitation! Kind of like a big brother. I remember thinking wow what a guy!

“ John was a characteristic, funny, outgoing young man. When Drew introduced me to John we were at Crew's sister's apartment on the second floor I look over and John is jumping out of the window. I scream thinking he is hurt but when I looked out the window he wasn't on the ground. When we saw John again I told him never to scare me like that again while Drew and John laughed at me. Drew and I have very fond memories of John and we will miss him dearly. May you soar with the Eagles our friend you will always be remembered. R.I.P. John Drew and I love you.

“ we loved you the first time we met you a few years ago and your sons helped me plant bushes at church parsonage; you attended bible studies on wed and church on sundays when you could, we met your dad and loved him also. there was a sunday that you 'filled' a pew with part of your family. oh my have we laughed and cried together. just a week ago one of our ladies saw you at Wal-Mart and you hugged her and asked about all of us;said you looked great and happy. we so wanted you back in church but your work kept you in Okmulgee; that's ok, we still prayed and loved you. we all love you and your family; still do. wanda Howell; pastor Howell, henryetta church of god.
