I remember when we lived in the addition, my Son, Brian loved to visit with the Pascale's. I just remember Josh as a little boy and he was always smiling and very courteous to me. Gone too soon but will never be forgotten. My sincere condolences to the Pascale family.

“ I remember the first 2 weeks of first grade Pat would bring you in and you would cry, you hated it! After that I never remember seeing you without a smile on your face. I miss your contagious laugh and your sweet spirit. The last memory I have of you was two days before you were taken from us you were walking back toward the homes away from us but you turned and threw up your hand. If I would have known that was the last time I would see you I would have stopped to give you a hug and tell you that I love you my sweet friend! Rest well my dear friend and classmate until I meet you again in heaven. Mike and David, I love you guys! My heart still breaks!

“ Hey Josh (cuz)!

I miss you so much! I had so much fun growing up together, spending the weekends at your house with you, Aunt Pat, Mike & Tiny and the way you all use to rag on each other that my side would hurt from laughing so much.

I enjoyed spending time with you if it was hanging out at the house, watching movies, listening to music (of course Rap) getting ready to go out for Halloween; LOL trying to pick a costume, watching softball games, walking to the corner store. I cherish all of those memories.

REST IN PEACE "JUICE"

I LOVE YOU

GOOBIE

“ It's not easy for me to do this. I'm not going to lie. Bt I loved my big brother Juice. I walked over to his house one day. Wen I got there he said ya missed it. Missed Wat? I went to answer my phone and had doodielogs (sh_t) on my phone. I smelled something. I couldn't help bt laugh. It was all over his phone,hand,pockets. He seemed to always step in doodielogs. I'll never forget this I laughed so hard. I love ya and will definitely see ya again Juice.

Big Juice, next weekend is Creek Festival and will not be the same not seeing that Red Sox jersey and that smile u always had, shaking hands and giving hi fives. We know your gonna be above watching all the games going on and when i see a wild pitch or a batter get hit, will be thinking of you. Fly high and rest in peace my friend.
