“ Mom, you are missed so very much. I will no longer be able to fix your hair, put your make-up on, hold your hand, or kiss your face. You were such a beautiful lady and no one could ever compare. You made us laugh, made us cry, listened to our problems; but allowed us to make our own decisions in life without condemning us for those choices. You taught us to be strong, and, independent, however, loving, and caring. Our lives will never be the same without you. You have left a positive impression on this earth, and I know the Angels in Heaven have welcomed you with open arms. I hope you find peace, and happiness again as you reunite with Daddy, and all of your loved ones. Thank you for being my Mom.
