“ I don't know why I was brought to this page today... I was looking up someone else, and this page came up. Sooo... here's to my brother. There will never be another Kenneth Thompson! When God made him, he broke the mold. All I can say is, he made everyone's life better. I only wish I could be a fraction of the person he was. He blessed me from the day I was born, and even today, reading others post. RIP... you ding dong daddy from Bryant... <3 you. Will see you one day again... I know you are picking and grinning!

“ On the drive to OK tonight for Uncle Kenneth's funeral listening to Willie Nelson's album "The Trouble Maker" I fondly remember all the times we sat in Uncle Kenneth and Aunt Charlene's living room while he sang these very songs. Praise God for the Amazing Grace that assures us that When the Roll is Called Up Yonder Uncle Kenneth is enjoying an Uncloudy Day; the same grace that assures us in In the Sweet Bye & Bye the Circle Will be Unbroken.

Never met a stranger and always loved with every fiber of his being. A true soldier of God! I am sure Heaven is rejoicing over such a great homecoming! We here, will truly miss him! So thankful to have been part of such a great family and have Kenneth as my cousin. He welcomed me into the family as soon as he met me. Always welcomed me with a big hug, kiss and "Hello cuz!"
