“ Kim was always smiling and would light up when you had a conversation with her. I don't think I can ever remember a time she wasn't smiling. She had such a big caring heart. I am blessed to have known her and be her friend.

It seems like yesterday I use to go to granny wilcox' home ,and get kimmie and carry her in my arms to the bus stop to go to school so she wouldn't have to walk far ,over the years her and sisters became more family than friends,,Granny became granny to all us neighborhood kids ,,Now they are both together once again,but this time Her and granny are celebrating granny's birthday 🎉 ,,Kim's walking and running,something that was not possible here ,,and granny can breathe and run right along with her ,,no oxygen need ,,love you both , see u again someday

My condolences to the family. I remember the first time I met her, she was probably around 9 or 10, she was so sweet and you could tell how loved she was and how much love she had for her sisters and Granny Peggy. She was a sweetheart. Prayers for her family. Susan Mosco
