“ Larry was my brother , he was born in Stockton, CA. We were in the Navy and on the same boat USS Forrestal CVA 59.
On the day he passed , my brother Chris had reminded me of a story :

One day Larry was running through the house whistling and Mom told him to stop several times , Larry didn't , so Mom made him sit on a chair and spend the rest of the day whistling.

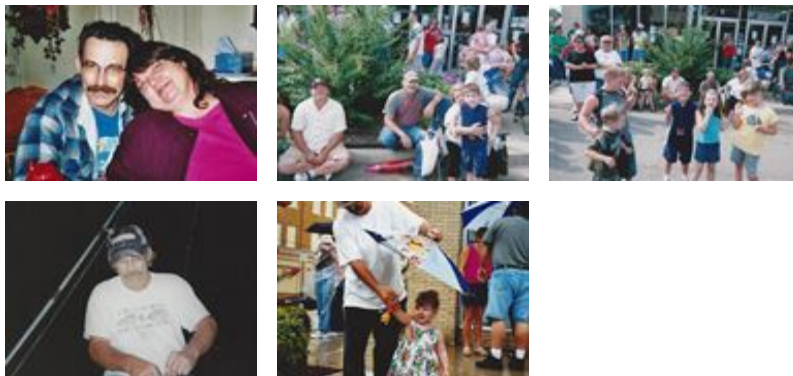

I was telling my wife, Anne, the story I had not thought of in years when the lady at the next table got a phone call , the ring tone was someone whistling over and over . I turned around to ask her about it and she told me the only time that particular tone sounded off was when an anonymous call came through. I believe it was a GOD call saying it was alright to let Larry go , Mom was waiting to hear him whistle once again !

I love and miss my brother Larry but he is with my Mom and Dad !
