“ What a blessing to live near Lena and the kids growing up. A mother who took her kids to church and everywhere they needed to go, with a smile. Terry and Debbie, the past few years have been extremely difficult on both of you and your loving mom, she is with her Heavenly Father who she taught you about and wants you to cling to as she did. Lena had a beautiful voice, a natural smile, a heart of gold and now she is in the arms of Jesus with a clear mind and no pain. Always remember who she turned to daily and cling to Him especially now. I am sorry she is gone and I am praying for you, I know there has been so much heartache for you both the past few years.

“ My sympathy to the family of one of my dearest friends, Lena Powell. Although Lena lived the last few years in a nursing home, she was never out of my heart. She and I loved to sing together. Lena and her husband Bobby Powell never missed an opportunity to sing for others. Immanuel Baptist Church suffered great losses when the Powells were no longer there in body. I knew they remained in spirit, they were devoted mainstays and always supported the church. I know heaven is richer for Lena's presence and we all look forward to meeting her again on "that beautiful shore".
