April 16, 1936 - April 21, 2017

Lloyd Edwin Trimble, 81, of Dustin, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully at his home on Friday, April 21, 2017. Born in Holbrook, AZ to Bertha Neff and Walter Lowell Trimble. Lloyd lived most of his early years in Farmington, NM where he graduated from Farmington High School and married his sweetheart, Barbara JOAN Henry.

Lloyd served in the US Air Force as a Russian Linguist in Shiroi, Japan before attending the University of Oklahoma where he received his PhD in Chemical Engineering. He began his career at DuPont and advanced to head Christina Labs at DuPont headquarters in Wilmington, DE. During his career, Lloyd served as Vice-President of Research and Development at Kimberly Clark and also at Fiberweb Nonwovens Corp. He was CEO at Trimble Consulting, Inc. and later at Superior Nonwovens.

Upon retirement, Lloyd and Joan came back home to the Henry & Trimble Ranch in Dustin, OK.

Lloyd volunteered a great deal of his time and energy to his church, Boy Scouts of America and community events. He enjoyed time with his family, gardening, fishing, traveling, following sports - especially watching OU football. He had a lifelong interest in archeology and loved all things western.

Lloyd is survived by his wife of 62 years, Barbara JOAN Henry Trimble; daughter, Margaret Elaine Trimble of Dustin, OK; daughter, Valle Carol
