

Margaret Davis

May 11, 1947 - December 7, 2025

It is with joyous hearts that we can say our beloved, Margaret Davis, is running into the arms of her Lord and Savior, made whole by his Promise. She was received into the embrace of those she dearly missed; her mother & father, Martha and Bertram Morris, her brothers Bertram and Chris, and her sweet Gracie.

Her family, friends and those she graced with her ornery antics will miss her immensely, but will delight in cherished memories. She is survived by her husband, Raymond Davis, her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, a multitude of extended family and friends, and her kids, Annabelle and Mickey.

From the time she entered into this earthly realm on May 11, 1947, to her heavenly ascent on December 7, 2025, she loved to talk, dance and sing. She always wanted to be a part of the heavenly choir. And, we know she is singing, "Holy, Holy, Holy" the loudest.

Her family wishes to express their boundless gratitude to the unwavering care and love demonstrated by the beautiful souls at the Porta Caeli House and the St. Francis Hospice personnel, and to Rogers Funeral Home for their respectful and immediate response.

"How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard. (A.A.

Milne) So not goodbye, but until we meet again at the Jordan River."

At her request no funeral service will be conducted. "No grieving over my broken bodily vessel. Rejoice in a soul at peace." ~ Margaret "Nonnie"

Cremation arrangements are under the direction of Rogers Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

RC

“ Oh, Lord, I have so many great memories with you and your Mom. She was loving, sweet and was hilarious. I remember going to your house and hanging out or going to school activities. She was like a caring friend/ Mom to a lot of us misfits.

Robert Cummings - December 08, 2025 at 03:25 PM

HM

“ Margaret was a good friend. She was positive and always willing to help. I admired her fight with her health issues. May she rest in peace. I pray for a memorial. We worked together and she was good. I will miss her....Ms. 103. Much love, Hortense Mason

Hortense Mason - December 08, 2025 at 02:04 PM

DD

“ I loved your mom so much and I know that my mother is celebrating with her best friend right now.

Delena Donathan - December 07, 2025 at 11:53 PM

MB

“ Margaret has and will be missed. Always a hug to be had and given.

Mary Jane Becker - December 07, 2025 at 11:12 PM

JR

“ So sorry to hear of her passing. I worked with Margaret at SUPRA while my husband & i pastored a church in Tulsa. We had good times together at work & also at the Ladies Bible study that she attended with me. Prayers for your family. Brian & Jamie Rauschenberger

Jamie Rauschenberger - December 07, 2025 at 04:28 PM