I am so sad to learn of Marsha's passing. She was such a beautiful and talented person. I enjoyed working with her when we were in Ithana Club, and I will never forget her kind ways, the many talents she had, and the laughter we shared. I will miss her and pray that God blesses and comforts her family as they grieve the loss of God's angel. I love you Marsha, God speed on your journey to His Kingdom.

Marsha and I were lifelong friends. We were born a week apart and our fathers both worked at C.R. Anthony's. Her parents were dear friends with my folks. Our parents' friendship extended until they died. When my father was in his late 90's and early 100's, we would call Marsha and her mother, Thelma, to reminisce about old times.

There are so many memories with Marsha. We took dancing together from ages 3 through high school She even lived with my family for a while so she could attend Northwest Classen High School. She was so faithful to check on me whenever there was news of a California fire or earthquake. We hadn't talked or texted in a few months. She texted me in March saying, "Hey girlie! Have a new phone and here is my new number ... Love ya"

I'm in shock and so very sad. I am praying for God to comfort Marsha's family and give them peace.
