

Maurice Mims

February 2, 1938 - January 15, 2023

Maurice (Moe) Mims, 84, was born on February 2, 1938 in Henryetta, Ok to Herman and Vera Mims. He took his last breath at home, surrounded by loved ones, on his beloved ranch in Pharoah, Ok on January 15, 2023.

Moe grew up in Henryetta, He graduated High School from St. Michaels Catholic Church in 1956. Once graduated, he worked at Anchor Glass Plant in Henryetta, but he had a passion for fast cars which took him on a life-long career of car sales. He owned a Mim's Ford, Lincoln and Mercury dealership in Okemah, OK in the early 70's. Eventually, he turned this love to used cars, opening business in Henryetta and Okemah.

He took a blank-canvas property filled with many possibilities and built and operated his ranch in Pharoah starting in 1963, where he found true joy in cattle ranching, baling hay and building his home. Everyone who knew him knows he lived his life "LARGE" with no filter. He was honest, loyal and loved his family.

“ I first became acquainted with Maurice (Moe) in 1979 when I went to work at a local bank. He was always one of my favorite people/customers. I later went to work at the Credit Union where I would see him and get to visit occasionally. Since I retired in 2013, I have seen him very little, but have thought about him often. My condolences to Rhonda, his girls and the rest of the family. We lost a good one 😞

He was a heckuva story teller and you are right when you say he had “no filter!” But I think that was his most endearing trait. My sympathy to his loved ones. Fly high you ol coot!
