“ Coach Kennedy not only taught me how to play, but as I got into high school and others passed me by, he recognized my ability to teach and coach the game and got me started in that path at age 15. That was instrumental in starting me down a path that allowed me to coach every level of tennis. His mentorship, and in more recent years, friendship have been Blessings in my life (and the lives of so many others). May God Bless Kelly, Kenya, and all of their extended family in their time of need.
